

PTO Meeting Minutes

February 8, 2023

VIP Breakfast: 370 in first group and 180 in second group. Busing is lined up. Will have staff on buses to hand out wristbands so people know where to go. Jody Noonan ordered 55 dozen (660) donuts, for total of $769 and will confirm the day before. Jody Noonan will pick up donuts and will have to school by 7:30am. Sue Knepper will drop juice off at school the day of. Teachers will hand out student wristbands the morning of. Lisa Aschtgen will buy coffee and creamer. Will have VIP guest line halls to find their student(s) as they leave their classrooms. Dan Wendler is going to ask Angie Bergfeld to start the coffee pots when she arrives Wednesday morning. Bookfair will only be during VIP breakfast, not the nights of conferences.

PTO would like to buy teachers/para's a drink from Cheryl's Flour Garden on Tuesday, February 14th. Dan Wendler will contact staff and place order.

Equipment is ordered for Pre-K playground and will be delivered the end of May. Brad Gravel was contacted to do the dirt work.

Field Trips: 1st grade is heading to Jones County Park and the all-inclusive playground in Monticello. Total for busing is $138. Kindergarten is heading to Creative Adventure Lab, in Dubuque or Monticello. Admission is $245, busing if go to Monticello is $75. Teachers are going to call Monticello and make sure they have enough to do for all the kids since such a big group. PTO approved either location.

Color run: Kendra Kedley is going to order the chalk, 5-20lb boxes. Dan Wendler is going to have Tammy Connolly start getting sizes of t-shirts for the kids and staff. Dan Wendler is going to order new post cards with picture of new playground to send to businesses.

Next meeting is March 8th at 6:45 p.m. at Two Gingers.